Coastal Walks

Stretching over 200km/125 miles, coastal walks are plentiful in Wexford shore. Walks or tracks along Wexford's reclaimed slob land.

The beaches are sand and shingle based: the cliffs are formed from clay deposits and rocky outcrops.

Discovery maps 62, 69, 76, 77 82

Mount Leinster & Blackstairs Mountains

Mount Leinster and The Blackstairs Mountains are enjoyable days hiking or biking. Starting from Kildavin, near Bunclody, forest Leinster is the highest point and a favourite spot for hang-gliders, when conditions prevail.

Discovery Maps 68, 75, and 76
